

Ward branch of Socialist party Sunday evening, Nov. 16.

Three armed auto bandits got $235 in George F. Miller's saloon, 2858 W. Taylor st.

State's Attorney Hoyne may take stand in clairvoyant case.

Inspector of Morals Dannenberg arrested 27 in clean-up on South Side.

Harry Schaffer, Wayne, Ill., wealthy farmer, found in box car near there. Skull fractured. Mystery.

Dr. John B. Murphy elected president of Clinical Congress of North America.

Sixty-nine municipal bonds sold so far.

John P. Kregor, 24, found dead in bed at Hotel Wabash, 27 E. Harrison.

Sophia Stein, Plaza Hotel, took poison in LaSalle st. station. May recover.

John Haggerty, owner of Sherman garage, 623 Dole av., fined $200 for running auto while intoxicated.

Bandits got $60 from Sam McCoy's saloon, 2600 Wentworth av., after locking bartender in icebox.

Isaac Grensefelder, 86, "grand old man" of the Jewish philanthropists, is dead.

Mrs. Agnes Lewis, patient at Chicago State Hospital, Dunning, died from beating given by Miss Antonio Machian, another patient.

Bernardine Szold, 19, Gary, Ind., eloped with Albert Carver, lawyer.

Frances Molowski, 17, trailed Joseph Flavis twice over Atlantic ocean and finally had him arrested in Gary, Ind., on charge of being father of child.

Roy Shields, painter, arrested, charged with having shot and wounded Charles Cameron and Wm. Gradt.

Federal government yesterday began to probe into Quaker Oats trust.

Jane Addams resigned place as first vice-president of Illinois Equal Suffrage Association.

Thirteen people quarantined in house at 4324 Vernon av. Two ill with smallpox.

Unidentified woman, about 25, struck and probably fatally injured by Halsted st. car at Belden av.

"Sun Cult" Hanish will be placed on trial before Judge Mack Monday for sending improper books in violation of interstate commerce law. Billy Lindsay may be produced by government.

Pete Bartzen and County Agent Jos. Meyer nearly hooked up over Bartzen's statement that Meyer's picture was in "rogues' gallery."

Illinois Federation of Woman's Clubs went on record as opposed to saloons.

Albert Wakona, 2229 S. Wood st., found dead in bed. Mrs. Andrew Goladski, 13342 Ontario av., questioned.

Slight fire damage in paint room of county building.

Police of various cities searching for Sol Lewinsohn, missing bondsman, wanted for embezzlement.

Rev. Archie C. Preston, Forest Glen Congregational Church, robbed of $3.70 and badly beaten by three men.

Mrs. Ella Flagg Young protested against U. S. action in barring sex hygiene lectures from mails.

Marian Bartlett, 14, 443 E. 46th st., tried to drown herself in Jackson Park lagoon. Grief over dead mother.

Molly Mendelson, 18, 839 W. 14th st., tried to die by gas. Stepmother and low wages.

Gov. Dunne commuted sentence of Ethel Barry, who was sent to Bridewell Sept 14 for assault with intent to kill.

Mrs. Chas. Hereenden, 7226 Hawthorne av., and three others hurt in auto smash-up near Washington Pk.

Bull Moose party will have full aldermanic ticket next spring.

Mrs. Jennie Anderson, 512 N. Clark st., arrested in Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.'s on charge of slashing dresses.

James Gast, former partner of James Charapoulis, 4329 S. Halsted st., charged with latter's murder.